County May Refund Highway Bonds Due

Decline in Gasoline Tax Will Reduce Funds Available For Payment Highway Bonds

Counties have been advised that for the fiscal year starting Sept. 1, it will be necessary for counties to finance practically half of their present highway bonds. Because of the decline in gasoline tax expected until the war ends, the state cannot pay off highway bonds in the same rate that has been assumed in the past. The state assumes highway bonds in proportion to the amount of money received from the gasoline tax.

G. B. Heath received this information while attending the meeting of County Judges and Commissioners at San Angelo Thursday to Saturday.

George A. Height, chief accountant of the Board of County and District Road Indebtedness, estimated that the gasoline tax would be about half of previous years. Counties would therefore be forced to take care of the balance of the annual interest and highway bond payments.

It was suggested by Mr. Height that Commissioners Courts not raise their tax rates in order to have the money to pay for these bonds. He suggested that the part which the counties will have to pay be refunded (or refinanced) and set up for about six years with the idea that the war would be over by that time and the state could resume assumption of highway bonds. In this manner, the regular functions of the counties will not be interfered with during the war. The plan was approved by representatives from all West Texas counties, and a united effort will probably be made in the near future to refund about half of the outstanding highway bonds of these counties for a period of six years.

According to Mr. Heath, the bond problem was the most vital to all commissioners courts of all problems discussed at the convention.

Commissioners Calvin Casey and D. S. Hill also attended the convention.

Stamp Plan Is Working Here

Orange and Blue Stamps Handled at All Grocery Stores—126 Qualified

The stamp plan system for distributing groceries to those receiving Old Age Assistance, workers on WPA, those on direct relief and receive the stamps and urges that operation yesterday.

126 families were qualified by Mrs. Velma Lyons. She states that many other families are eligible to receive the stamps and prges that these see her at once.

Under the plan, families will buy orange stamps, with which they secure groceries at local stores at regular retail prices. With the orange stamps are given free of charge blue stamps with which the families also secure groceries at the regular retail prices.

The stamps are secured by mailing orders to the distributing office in Amarillo. Those eligible must mail their money as no provision is made for people going after the stamps. The stamps are mailed back to the applicant—both the orange and the blue stamps.

Commodities which are available free with the blue stamps are posted in each grocery store. All of the grocery stores in Canyon are co-operating in the stamp program.

30 Men Given Physical Exams For Army Work

Physical examinations have been completed for thirty men who will enter the army on April 16.

Induction orders have been mailed to men selected to meet the call on that date. About one-third of these men are transferred to other boards for induction.

Among volunteers during the past week were:

Walter Roscoe Edwards, air corps.
Earl Ogden Blankenship, army.
Richard Terry Ziegler, navy.
Jerry Edy Merritt, Jr., signal corps.
Arch Terry Fowler, Jr., navy.
Herschell Bradshaw, army.

The master list of order numbers for the men who registered Feb. 16 was received from Washington by the local Selective Service board yesterday. Order numbers for all men will be completed in a few days.

Pioneer Business Man Died Monday

A. E. Brown, 97, a pioneer business man of Canyon, died Monday in Albuquerque.

Mr. Brown was the father of three well known former citizens, George, Fulton and Ewell Brown, all deceased. Mrs. Brown died 15 years ago.

Mrs. Fulton Brown, daughter-in-law of the deceased, states that Mr. Brown owned the first grocery store in Canyon. He was in the same building with the store of S. E. Roberts.

The Big-Four, owned by Brown, Oldham, Donaldson and Pipkin, followed the store owned individually by Mr. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown moved to Amarillo many years ago, living with their granddaughter, Mrs. D. E. Simmons.

Many Baptists Here for 2-Days Meeting

Baptist delegates from 22 counties were in Canyon Tuesday and Wednesday for the annual convention of district 9.

Among the prominent Baptists heard during the convention were: Dr. T. C. Gardner of Dallas; Dr. G. S. Hopkins, Dallas; Mrs. B. A. Copass, Fort Worth; Dr. A. C. Miller, Dallas; Judge E. S. Cummings, Abilene; R. A. Springer, treasurer of the Baptist General Convention; and more than 50 prominent Baptists from this district.

Dr. and Mrs. Louis Upchurch spent Friday night at the parental W. H. Upchurch home. They are moving from Washington, D. C., to Albuquerque. Dr. Upchurch is with the Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

Mrs. E. C. Brown and Mrs. Lynch of Amarillo spent Sunday here visiting Mrs. Brown's parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Biggers.

City Election to Be Held Tuesday—Only One Contest

Canyon's city election will be held next Tuesday.

Mayor C. H. Jarrett is a candidate for re-election and is running without an opponent. He was urged by citizens to accept another term due to street work and other public improvements which are underway and will not be completed for several months.

Commissioners S. B. Orton and Robert W. Foster are candidates for re-election. Friends of B. F. Oatis filed a petition asking that his name be placed on the ticket as a candidate for commissioner.

Mr. Oatis stated when informed of this action that he had not asked for a job on the commission, but if elected he would make a hand on the job.

It is expected that a heavy vote will be cast in the election next Tuesday.

Gus Miller To Assume Duties at W. T. on Friday

Gus Miller will arrive in Canyon Friday to assume his new duties at West Texas State.

Miller was recently elected assistant coach of the Buffalo football squad and teacher in the Physical Education Department.

He is a graduate of W. T. and has made a most enviable record as coach at Texas Wesleyan at Fort Worth. His basketball team has been one of the most outstanding teams of the Southwest. Coach Al Baggett selected the Wesleyan Rams as one of the three teams to represent Texas in the tournament at Kansas City last month.

Miller's family will not move here until June.

Warren Attended Amarillo Banquet

W. A. Warren attended the annual banquet of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce Thursday night. At that time it was revealed that two large government projects would be opened north and east of Amarillo where several thousand men would be employed.

It is believed that the bomber base in the north part of Randall county will be announced in a few days. This site is 10 miles north of the depot.

Dahlia Grounds Are Prepared

Plants or Roots Sought From Growers in All Sections of Nation

Trial grounds of the Southwestern Dahlia Society located on the campus of West Texas State College are being prepared for the first planting in May.

Letters asking for roots have been mailed to nearly 100 prominent dahlia growers by R. E. Harter of Canyon, secretary-treasurer of the society. Fertilizers, stakes, peat moss, and insecticides have been purchased. All rules of the American Dahlia Society will be followed here, except that there will be a charge of $2.00 for the trial and scoring of new varieties this season. Certificates of merit will be awarded varieties scoring 85 or better.

In addition to the trial ground, there will be a show garden where commercial growers may send stock of the newer name varieties for display. No charge will be made for growing these varieties, and names of donors will be displayed. Either roots or plants will be accepted. There is much interest in the program of this new participating unit of the American Dahlia Society because of the favorable climate and 3600 foot elevation of the plains.

Border plants of the trial grounds will include red, white and blue petunias and other decorative plants. Next fall an inspection day will be held so that the public may see the dahlias in bloom and hear a distinguished dahlia judge. Dr. A. M. Meyer of the West Texas State College faculty is chairman of the trial ground committee. Levi Cole is president of the Southwestern Dahlia Society, which has members in several communities of the Panhandle.

Clean-Up Day Is Urged By Garden Club

The Garden Club will ask the City Commission to designate a Clean Up Day to be held in a few days. However, citizens are urged to begin now to prepare for this Clean Up Day, and get their premises in readiness to dispose of trash which has accumulated during the winter.

Everything which cannot be burned should be placed in boxes or sacks in the alleys so that city trucks may gather this rubbish and take it to the city dump grounds. Every citizen may clean his own premises and the vacant lots near his home in order to improve the looks of the town.

Members of the Garden Club ask business houses to take more care in keeping the public square free from trash and rubbish. They will ask the city to clean the gutters at frequent intervals, but suggest that business houses may help by not sweeping trash into the streets and allowing it to blow around the pavement and sidewalks.

Citizens are urged not to throw paper cups and napkins into the streets after they get drinks. This has become one of the greatest sources of trash and litter around Canyon.

Dandelions are coming up and all citizens are urged to dig these pests as soon as they show up. If every citizen will keep the dandelions picked before they go to see, the plants will be controlled this year.

Chickens and dogs are reported by Garden Club members to be doing much damage to flowers, shrubs and gardens. All citizens are asked to keep their chickens penned and to keep their dogs at home.

Hereford Pure-bred Herd to T-Anchor

Hereford breeders of the Panhandle will donate animals to the T-Anchor Farm, operated by the agricultural students of West Tevas State.

W. E. Bennett and W. M. Gouldy, Hereford breeders, will assist Alex Gray, student herdsman in selecting animals for the herd.

Final arrangements for the herd were made Tuesday night under the direction of Mason King. President J. A. Hill, Frank R. Phillips and T. M. Moore represented the College in the meeting.

Dairymen Must Increase Milk

Bond Sales Here Are Under Quota

Decline In Bonds Should Be Made Up During April; Wright Asks Bond-Month

Randall county fell down badly on the sale of Defense Bonds during March.

R. H. Wright, county chairman, stated yesterday that only $9,600 worth of bonds were bought at the bank and post office during the month. The quota is $20,250 per month.

Randall county was over the monthly quota during January and February by about $5,000. The deficit for March puts the county in the red $5,650 on the sale of bonds.

There was a total sale of stamps of $1,403.00 during March, but $667.50 of stamps were converted into bonds during the month.

Randall county now has 83 persons buying bonds every month. This is an increase of 11 since the first of March. Mr. Wright hopes that the number will be increased to 100 during April.

Mr. Wright hopes that every citizen will buy as many bonds as possible during this month in order to wipe out the deficit and to meet the regular monthly quota.

Soil Payments Started Coming to Land Owners of Randall County

County Agent Upchurch Explains Methods Payments; Notices as Checks Arrive

The delayed payments to farmers under the 1941 Farm Program began to arrive in the county office this week. About 225 checks were received in two lots for an amount of $40,853.00. Farmers are being notified individually as their checks are ready for delivery. Notices are generally mailed on same day checks arrive in the local office.

Farmers were loaned 93 cents per bushel on the 1941 wheat crop in this area and are being paid 8 cents per bushel, under the conservation program, on the normal yield of their allotted acreage. Wheat farmers were also paid 10 cents per bushel of their normal production from the funds allotted to parity payments. A farmer who produced a normal yield last year of No. 2 wheat and made full compliance received a total of $1.11 per bushel, less loan fees and handling charges paid to elevators and warehouses. The total of these fees and charges in this area would perhaps average about 5 cents per bushel.

Thus the wheat growers averaged about $1.06 including Triple A payments for the 1941 crop under the conservation program. The present parity of "fair exchange" price of wheat according to Government economists would be about $1.29 per bushel. The parity price at the beginning of the 1941 marketing year was about $1.13 per bushel.

Some interesting statistics are found in the County Agent's office in regard to the Farm Program as it applies to Randall county. Two-thirds of the farming units in the county are classified as small farms and as such receive a small additional amount under the provision in the law that gives the small farmer special consideration. Any farming unit for which the payment is less than $200 for any year is automatically classified in the "small farmer" group. The increased payments on this group of farms amounts to more than the total cost of operating the program in the county. Approximately one-half of the farms in Randall county are rented on a crop share basis. In this group of about 450 farm units there are 56 operators with four or more units. Nineteen landlords own three or more farms (rented for crop rent) and six own four or more farms.

The average size of farm unit in Randall county contains about 360 acres of crop land.

Chinese Relief Is Asking for $500 Randall Citizens

Chinese relief will be observed in the United States during the week of April 11. It is planned to raise $7,000,000 in the United States, and the quota for Randall county is $500. Dr. H. A. Brown has accepted the chairmanship of the campaign.

All churches in Canyon are invited to participate in this campaign.

Local committees will be appointed so that every citizen will have the opportunity to assist in raising this quota. This is the second call made for Chinese relief, with nearly $200 being raised on the first call. In the first call there was no county quota.

One Ticket Out For Places on the School Board

Voters of the Canyon Independent School District will elect two members of the Board of Trustees in the annual election Tuesday.

Dr. R. A. Neblett and H. L. Heizer are candidates for re-election. Both are members of the board and were urged by the other five members to accept another term on the board of trustees.

No other names have been filed for places on the official ballot.

Demand Increase From Farmers

Annual Banquet of Randall County Dairymen Ass'n. Held on Friday Night

The 14th annual banquet of the Randall County Dairymen's Association was held Friday night at the Methodist Church. The West Side Home Demonstration Club served the banquet.

More than 150 people attended this annual gathering. W. H. Upchurch acted as toastmaster. Albert Byars, president, extended a welcome to the members. Rev. C. C. Armstrong gave the invocation.

Mr. Upchurch pointed out that milk was the only food product which was running behind schedule in the Food for Freedom Campaign. Randall county is producing about two gallons of milk for every bushel of wheat.

Ted Ratcliff, dairy inspector, believes that milk producers are not yet quite sold on the necessity of increasing production. This is the first time since the Revolutionary War that a regular milk diet has been prescribed for the army and navy. At the present time 350,000 quarts of milk, 22,000 pounds of cheese, and 175,000 pounds of butter are needed daily by the armed forces. This increases as new men are inducted. There are 18 persons engaged in war work behind every fighting man, and all of these need milk. Secretary Wickard has demanded 2½ billion quarts of milk for importation to England during 1942.

In the Amarillo territory, 5,000 gallons of milk are produced daily. This must be doubled in about 90 days. Those who have barns, cattle and equipment should increase their production to the limit. "Food will win the war and write the peace," stated Mr. Ratcliff.

Dr. Conrad Freed made a humorous talk, telling a string of jokes which kept the audience in an uproar.

Clyde W. Warwick talked on the duties, obligations and opportunities of men.

Car Plate Rush As Many Change Minds About Cars

There was a great rush to buy 1942 car license plates at the last minute.

The office of Tax Collector M. E. Cantrell was swamped with car owners Tuesday and yesterday. Scores of people who thought they could put the old bus in storage for the duration of the war decided at the last minute to "keep her running."

No check could be made this morning on the final plate sales, but the total will not be so large as last year.

According to information from Austin, new plates will not be put out during the war, but some kind of seals will be provided next year to attach to the present plates showing that the 1943 fee has been paid.

Resurfacing of Highway to Park

Highway 217 between Canyon and the Palo Duro Park will be resurfaced as a result of a contract let in Austin last week.

It has been four years since this highway was resurfaced. The State Highway Commission does this kind of work at regular intervals in order that the foundations do not deteriorate.

MRS. GREGG JOINS HUSBAND

Mrs. George T. Gregg left Sunday for Chicago to join her husband who is enrolled in the Chicago Institute of Technology. Mrs. Gregg closed her shop here Saturday. Mr. Gregg left the middle of March. Before being sent to Chicago Mr. Gregg worked as assistant observer in meteorology at the United States Weather Bureau, English Field at night and attended classes at W. T. during the morning.

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

The House of Representatives is taking a two weeks vacation so that Congress may go home and talk to the folks about the labor situation. Congressmen are scared over the situation, and wonder about the flood of protests which have been made against the labor racketeers and the time and a half 40-hour week bill. Speaker Sam Rayburn made a hasty trip to his home in Texas two weeks ago and announced from Washington his change of heart. Rayburn was convinced that the people of his district meant business. He was convinced that the people are sick and tired of seeing organized labor run the defense program and be the only ones in America who profit from the emergency. Other Congressmen too, will find out that the people mean business, and when they go back to Washington, they may repeal the 40-hour week in spite of the President, Madame Perkins and the other social reformers.

It certainly burns one down to hear of the fabulous profits some firms make off of war contracts. Congress has done everything possible to keep these profits in line, but mistakes in departments often result in letting contracts at unreasonable prices. A ship builder testified that his profits were larger than he figured on making simply because a naval officer insisted on letting contracts under his own formula; an Ohio firm divided a tremendous slush fund among employes as the result of a contract on which he was making more than 150%. The government may claim that it is getting this money back by the process of taxation, but nevertheless such profits in war time are unnecessary and unpatriotic.

Where spiritually resigns, materialism is dethroned. The world needs a good case of spiritualism in order to survive its present chaotic condition.

DON'T BELIEVE THESE LIES

Nazi propaganda is subtle. It is putting words into the mouths of Americans who should know better, but who undermine the morale of their neighbors by repeating what the Nazi wish us to believe. Here are some of their lies:

Democracy is dying.

Our armed forces are weak.

The 'New Order' is inevitable.

We are lost in the Pacific.

Our West Coast is in such grave danger there is no point in fighting on.

The British are decadent, and "sold us a bill of goods!"

The cost of the war will bankrupt the nation.

Civilian sacrifices will be more than we can bear.

Stalin is getting too strong, and Bolshevism will sweep over Europe.

Our leaders are incompetent, our Government incapable of waging war.

Aid to our allies must stop.

Our real peril is the Japanese, and we must join Germany to stamp out the "Yellow Peril."

We must bring all our troops and weapons back to the United States, and defend only our own shores.

The Chinese and the British will make a separate peace with Japan and Germany.

American democracy will be lost during the war.

School and city elections will be held in Canyon during the coming week. Go to the polls and cast a vote in these elections. There is no contest in the school election. Two trustees who have been giving their time and thought to the welfare of the schools will ask for re-election. They should be given a vote of confidence. In the city election there is a choice among three candidates for commissioner. Go to the polls and make your selection. After the election, give those who are elected your full co-operation. Local institutions will have a tough time during the war emergency, and every citizen has an obligation to see that these institutions continue to function properly. Vote your sentiment, and then support those who will carry on during these strenuous times.

Farmers are in a predicament. Ceilings have been placed on their products, but they are told that it is the patriotic thing to increase food production. The army takes away farm laborers, leaving the farmer with no extra help. Tire rationing will tie up harvest if no plan is devised to increase rubber for the wheat belt. Every farmer should write to the President telling him they are willing to produce all the food they can during a 40-hour week, provided he will allow them price and a half on all food produced on the extra 40 or 50 hours per week they will be forced to work. This is a Democracy, and every citizen has the right to write to the President and express his sentiment on prevailing problems. Write a letter to the President at once.

Let's clean up Canyon in a big way. It is reported that thousands of new faces will be seen in the Panhandle within a short time. They will come here on account of new defense factories to be established soon in the Panhandle. Some of these families may be looking for a good place to live, away from the high rent districts, and Canyon may profit to the extent of many new families. Let's have the town clean and attractive so as to make the most favorable impression upon these people.

Reports persist that Dan Moody will run for U. S. Senator against O'Daniel. So far as the News is concerned, we believe that if Moody will visit all parts of the state and see just how little interest the voters have in politics, he will not make the race. Be it remembered that Moody's friends tried to stir up sentiment to draft him for a third term as Governor, but the movement was a flop.

It is reported that John L. Lewis will attempt to split CIO, just as he did AFL. Lewis has lost his hold on CIO, but still has the most powerful branch with the Mine Workers. He is going to attempt a third labor party with the view of drawing the most powerful factions of both CIO and AFL. Lewis is sore at the President for not giving him a cabinet job. He swore he would resign as head of CIO if Roosevelt was re-elected, and had to do as he promised. Now he has broken with Phillip Murray, his former henchman. Lewis is attempting a dangerous thing, but he is capable of dangerous moves.

The poor people of India will no doubt find themselves in the predicament of the people of France. While the higher-ups fight over whether to make a stand against the Japs as against the English, the Japs may win a foothold which will strangle India if the Japs win. The English may have done a bad job in India—like they did on colonizing America—but the Indians will find themselves in a much worse position under Japanese rule than they have ever been under the English rule.

Panhandle Publishers will gather in Amarillo April 10-11 for the 33rd Annual Convention of the Panhandle Press Association. According to President Tex DeWeese of the Pampa News, this will be one of the most important meetings ever held of the association. War time economy of newspaper business will be the keynote of the convention.

Two-Story Science Building Has Been Started by Contractors

Specialized Laboratories Provided—Research Will Be Much Expedited

Work on West Texas State's new science building has been started by W. H. Hayman of Amarillo, who has the mechanical contract. Plumbing and heating materials are being moved to the site southeast of the Administration Building.

Mr. Hayman's contract totaled $26,995.

The general contract went to Ellis, Nicholson and Cramer, Inc., of Oklahoma City, and totaled $130,800. The building was designed by Macon O. Carder of Amarillo to require a minimum of critical materials. Purchases of materials for the structure are being made by the contractors.

Mr. Nicholson, of Ellis, Nicholson, and Cramer, general contractors for the science building project, was here with President Hill yesterday and stated that he would have his building headquarters shack up by today.

Nicholson told Dr. Hill that he would have openings for college students who wanted to work on the building. He was particularly satisfied with work done by college athletes on past jobs and wanted more from West Texas State.

Work will probably commence tomorrow or Thursday. Students, Nicholson said, can probably report for work after school hours and work for the remainder of the day. Dr. Hill added that some schedules might be arranged to allow a full half-day's work.

The building, for which the last Texas Legislature appropriated $175,000, will be 69 by 172 feet and of two stories. It will house the departments of agriculture, biology, chemistry, and physics. Freshman laboratories, advanced laboratories, and specialized labs for research will be provided. The physics department will have darkrooms for photo-analysis.

The structure will face west. Later additions can be made on the north and south ends. The general appearance will be similar to that of other campus buildings—long and flat-roofed. Brick will harmonize with that of the main building.

Members of the building committee are Dr. D. A. Shirley, chairman, Dr. C. A. Pierle, Prof. T. B. McCarter, Prof. L. S. Baker, and Prof. Frank R. Phillips. This group and the architect made extensive studies of science buildings during the preparation of plans, and Dr. J. A. Hill made other studies.

"He'll never make a soldier," exclaimed the sergeant of the bow-legged recruit. "When his legs above his knees stand at attention, below they stand at ease."

Authorities insist: CHANGE OIL FOR SPRING. And you can insist on this oil that outlasted five other big quality brands by far. Not one came nearer than 58% of its mileage!

DOWN where the desert slew gold-hunters—down where 100° heat is "cool"—down in Death Valley six cars streaked. All were alike . . . all ran till wrecked. All started with 5-quart fills of oil—locked in. All conditions were alike—certified. Five cars—five boasted brands of oil—went as dead as the cattle skulls in the sands, while the other oil still had quarts to go!

That was Conoco Nth motor oil, which can refill your crankcase today with the Nth degree of mileage and engine endurance. Changing from weakened Winter leftovers to Conoco Nth gives your engine OIL-PLATING for Spring. And OIL-PLATING is closely fastened all over inner engine parts as if "magnetized" against all draining back down to the crankcase. Bonded in place—even on straight-up surfaces—even overnight—OIL-PLATING can cut down the raw rubbing of precious parts during starting and running.

That's all against hollowing out your engine till it eats too much oil, and may demand replacements that are getting scarcer. But another big thing is to keep the oil itself in shape. And Conoco Nth oil—at a popular price—comes to you with Thialkene inhibitor . . . the modern synthetic developed to check or inhibit effects that would otherwise degenerate your oil.

The science of it is a long story, but the mileage is a thousand times longer, and Death Valley proved it. So can you by changing today for Spring, at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Continental Oil Company

Garden Club Has Guest Speaker At Meeting

The Canyon Garden Club and guests of the members met Wednesday morning at Cousins Hall for coffee and an illustrated lecture by the guest speaker Mrs. E. W. Hardin of Amarillo.

The reception room was decorated with potted plants, iris, peach and wild currant blossoms. Coffee, cinnamon rolls and nut balls were served. Plate favors were miniature corsages made up of dwarf iris, sweet peas and fern.

As beautiful pictures as any shown were those of Southern gardens. The Azalea gardens of Mobile and the Cypres gardens of Charleston were featured.

Brookfield And Halbert Shine

Although the team on which they were playing lost by two points, All-American Price Brookfield and 6 foot 10 inch Charlie Halbert of West Texas State College were standouts on the All-Star team which played a crack Army team in Madison Square Garden Saturday night.

The tournament all-stars were selected from the eight teams participating in the fifth annual Inviation College basketball tourney that was finished last week.

Brookfield came in to start the second half and in the first four minutes had poured in 10 points before the Army team could get started. When "Brookie" left the game, his team was leading 51 to 49, with six minutes left to play.

Six minutes was long enough, however, for the Army team to recuperate and to ease by the All-Star bunch, 57 to 59.

Although big Charlie Halbert was responsible for only one point, he saved at least eight or ten points in his under-the-basket work.

Democracy Upheld In Work of the Public Schools

"Are we educating the youth?" was the subject for Rotary Club discussion Tuesday at the weekly luncheon. Supt. J. B. Speer of the Canyon schools answered with a positive, "Yes." He pointed to the fact that the schools, the parents and the public were all doing a good job in the educational program.

The most recent question regarding schools is whether or not the ideals of Democracy were being upheld. Mr. Speer displayed a group of books, pamphlets and magazines which were used in the schools to uphold the principles of Democracy.

The Canyon school has a health and physical education program starting with the primary grade and continuing through the high school. Every student is taking part in this program. There is great need of a nurse and the time of a physician to make the program complete.

As to what the schools are doing to help win the war, Mr. Speer called upon Miss Elva Fronabarger, principal of the grade school, and J. F. Dickson, principal of the high school, to tell of the war programs.

Miss Fronabarger stated that children of the grades were fully aware of their part in the war program. The children had bought 536.80 Defense Stamps and $731 in Bonds.

Every room in the grade school is a member of the Junior Red Cross. After Pearl Harbor the children were told they could help by knitting afghans. They gathered yarn from their homes and have completed nine afghans, which Miss Fronabarger displayed. They are now working on more. These will be sent to camp hospitals and veteran hospitals.

In addition the children have made hundreds of games for the entertainment of sick and wounded soldiers.

The children are taught that the existence of waste is unpatriotic, and homes are being cleared of waste materials which may be used. Old newspapers are being sold, and the money used to buy more yarn.

All of the work is done before and after school in order that regular classes are not interrupted.

Mr. Dickson stated that the school was trying to develop the skill and aptitudes of students. Additional classes in mathematics and science have been added to help boys in war work.

High school boys recently volunteered to take the regular tests given to naval recruits and the grades were very high.

Vocational training is being stressed. Boys are building much useful farm equipment have doubled the number of hogs over last year; raising three times as many chicks as last year; increasing feed and dairy production; set out trees and gardens at their homes; 40 boys have bought $250 in Defense Bonds, and many more will be bought this spring.

Mechanical drawing, wood work, metal work and electricity are being stressed. Fifty model airplanes are being made for use of men in naval training courses.

The girls are studying health, nursing, home making, nutrition and allied subjects.

John McCarty of Amarillo, who went with the Buffalo basketball team to New York, paid high tribute to the boys on the squad. "They are a fine bunch of boys, clean, well behaved, well trained, and not spoiled by the great publicity which has been given them," stated Mr. McCarty. "West Texas State is better known in the East than any other college or university of the Southwest. Let's keep the Buffaloes known as the tallest team in the world," stated the speaker.

Mrs. O. D. McLellan of El Reno, Okla., is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Thomas, while Mrs. Thomas is in the hospital.

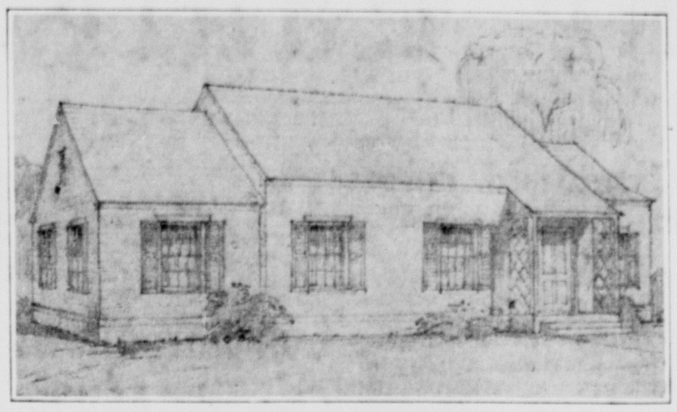
Presbyterians Remodeling Manse



ARCHITECT'S DRAWING OF THE NEW MANSE

Work has started on the rebuilding of the Presbyterian Church Manse located at the corner of Fifth Avenue and Eleventh Street. The old building which was completed in 1908 when the Rev. J. S. Groves was pastor of the Church, is being utilized in the new construction.

The new building will be modern in every respect. The six rooms will be made up of three bed rooms, a living room, a dining room and kitchen, together with an entrance hall, a breakfast nook and a well-located bathroom. The complete rebuilding will cost $3,600, and the estimated value of the new building will be conservatively placed at $5,000.

The old building has had an unusually interesting life in its present location, but it has not always been used as a Manse. In 1917-18, during the union of the Presbyterian and Christian Churches, the Sunday School grew so rapidly that additional space was needed, so the Manse was converted into Sunday School rooms, and a home was rented for the pastor.

At another time when there was no pastor, the Manse was used as a "Social Hall."

The old Manse has been home to 13 different ministers. What a pity that it cannot speak up and tell its own story! But the public will never know of the untold number of happenings which have gone on under the roof of the once modern building of 34 years ago.

Olympic Theatre Changes Time Starting Today

Starting today, the Olympic Theatre has changed its time in keeping with the wartime.

The management had intended to leave the show time at 8 o'clock in the evening as announced on the show calendar, but a revision in plans changes the time to 7:30 o'clock as girls staying in the halls are now scheduled to be in an hour earlier. Matinees on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday now start at 1:30 in the afternoon, and the midnight show on Saturday night is 11:30 instead of 12 o'clock.

If this schedule is satisfactory, it will be continued for some time.

Dr. H. A. Brown attended the Shrine convention at Dallas from Thursday until Sunday.

Glen Hicks of Midland spent part of the week here with his mother, Mrs. W. H. Hicks.

Judge: "You are accused of hitting this Chinese over the head with a vase. What is your reply to this charge?"

Prisoner: "Well, your honor, he was threatening me in broken English, so I replied with broken china."

Jack: "I never saw a girl with such personality in her eyes. They positively talk."

Joe: "I suppose when she feels like swearing she just gives a cursory glance."

"I know a good joke about crude oil."

"Spring it."

"It's not refined."

"I told your father that I loved you more than any other girl I ever met."

"And what did he say?"

"To try and meet some more girls."

War was declared on Germany by Congress. A special session of Congress started Monday at which time President Wilson asked that a state of war be declared.

Dr. F. M. Wilson was elected mayor; R. L. Marquis, R. E. Foster and S. B. Orton members of the city council.

Do you remember William Morris, and how his life was lived, his fortune spent, his hands busied—in the service of others? He was a "soldier of the common good." After he was gone—his life began to grow in radiance and power, like a beacon set high upon a dangerous shore. In the twilight of his days he wrote what I like to think was his creed—and mine: "I'm going your way, so let us go hand in hand. You help me and I'll help you. We shall not be here very long, for soon death, the kind old nurse, will come back and rock us all to sleep. Let us help one another while we may." —Frank P. Tebbetts.

She: "No, the rest are born that way."

Auntie: "Tommy, you showed your agility when you jumped over that fence."

Delegates Represent Canyon at District

School Discusses Final Activities

Discussing final plans for activities for the end of school year filled most of the time in class meetings Friday.

After making a short talk on "Choosing an Occupation Before Graduating from High School," Superintendent J. B. Speer visited the Senior Class meeting in which the members elected Al Hunter Youth Council representative, made final plans for the annual Carlsbad trip and discussed the picture show to be sponsored by the seniors this month.

Having elected Joe Ziegler Youth Council representative, the Junior Class discussed plans for the Junior-Senior Banquet to be held May 16.

Mrs. Guy B. Tabor, sponsor, reported, "The plans for the banquet are progressing rapidly, and we hope that every senior will attend."

Because of the resignation of Jay Ray Hunter, Letha Parrish was elected secretary of the Sophomore Class. The characters and plot of the class play were thoroughly discussed by Olin Huff, class sponsor.

Although the ninth grade had no urgent business, the class witnessed a pantomime, "The Football Fool." Afterwards Loyd Devin, sponsor, led songs as more entertainment.

Although uncertain, plans for the second party of this semester were made in the eighth grade meeting. Later, the class went to the gymnasium where they played games, such as "Flying Dutchman" and "Two Deep."

Miss Rose Parsley, sponsor, read short stories to the seventh graders after which they sang and played "Jack-in-the-Box."

Did you know that 125 students in Canyon High School and Canyon Grade School have bicycles? Did you know that, as tires for automobiles perish and as days become warmer, more than half of these bicycles probably will be ridden to school? Did you know that two and six-tenths of all the accident deaths involved bicyclists and that the lack of knowledge of correct bicycling traffic rules will cause many more accidents here this year?

Any bicyclist not impared physically or mentally may become a good and a safe one by remembering:

To apply the Golden Rule to his driving.

To place bicycles in racks provided for them.

That all safety signs and devices warn one of real danger.

To form the habit of riding on the extreme right of the street.

To approach an intersection with alert eyes and ears.

To hold arm and hand straight out to signal a left turn and at a right angle for a right turn.

To apply brakes while he is still fairly distant from where he wishes to stop.

To let friends find another way of transportation instead of pumping them.

To keep both hands on handlebars at all times in order to insure perfect control.

Not to be distracted by objects or people that he passes.

To keep his eyes on the road.

To keep his mind on his riding.

To be on the alert for red lights.

To allow pedestrians to walk on public sidewalks without having to dodge bicycles.

Just to combine all these rules into one, all bicyclists, if they follow general traffic rules for automobiles, may have an enjoyable ride and still be safe.

Math Classes Take Regulation Naval Entrance Examinations

Naval mathematics tests were given to all of Miss Grace Clark's classes last week. The tests were the same ones taken by boys entering the navy during November and December.

Avis Edna Campfield and Marvin Albers topped the score chart by missing only one problem apiece.

Americanism Is Program Topic

Turner Extends Warmer Challenges to Delegates

As girls from nine schools in District II assembled in the high school auditorium of Panhandle, Saturday, March 28, Amarillo Senior High School homemakers, led by Leona Brooks, moralized upon "Americanism and a Girl's Part for National Defense."

Immediately after Superintendent K. L. Turner of Panhandle extended warm challenges to the future builders of our nation, the homemakes saluted our waving "Stars and Stripes" and sang the National Anthem.

"Americanism is an unfailing love of our country," began Edna Houston of Amarillo as she spoke from the patriotically decorated stage with red, white and blue fences and flags and the miniature airplanes placed above a globe.

Group Emphasizes Health

From the nutritional view, Mary Frances Burch pointed out that now, more than ever, we need to have good health while Maxine Baird described a senior service scout organization. "Along with many other qualifications, one must have the willingness to stay with a job and a wide knowledge of the community and its functions. Accordingly he must have written permission from home and a certificate of completion of a first aid course," she continued.

"To be prepared, is my policy," stated Billie Green, who reviewed the need of first aid courses.

To emphasize the sale of Defense Stamps and Bonds was Wilma Berry's aim as she affirmed, "Today we are again engaged in a complicated World War. If you were given a choice between the war-torn German government, Russian communism or American freedom, which would you select? Are you doing your part to keep our nation just as it is—free?"

Harrell States Activities

When the presiding officer opened the floor to various schools, Shirley Harrell reported the activities of Canyon High Future Homemakers according to the set "five-point program."

At the compliments of Mr. Turner and the Panhandle Scohol Board, the Future Homemakers from Panhandle served a free luncheon of

to the visitors at noon.

When two voting delegates from each school gathered, Martha Jean Dowd, Canyon High School chapter president, presided over the business meeting. As local corresponding secretary, Pauline Winstead read the minutes and reported on the business meeting at the afternoon session of the meeting. A possible candidate for state officer from District II is Imogene Collins of Claude. The combined chapters from West Texas and Canyon High Schools extended an invitation to the girls to come here next year while Claude chapter volunteered to plan the program.

Girls Present Pantomime

While the moon rose, the tables turned and time passed on, Amarillo Sam Houston girls presented the humorous pantomime, "The Lamp Went Out." At irregular intervals during the day, Pauline Prickett, Amarillo, played accordion solos and groups from the junior high schools sang in quartets and sextets.

From the three chapters in Amarillo came 56 girls while 23 attended from Groom. Hereford was represented by 6 and Claude by 14, while Canyon took 20 homemakers. Panhandle had 36 girls present.

Boys Entertain Homemakers With All-Fool's Day Party

Canyon High's Future Farmers of America entertained the Future Homemakers of Texas Wednesday night with an "all-fool's" party where the games were planned by Charles SoRelle and Eugene Bonds assisted by Anita Davis and Ellen Sanders.

Prizes were given to the boy and the girl who appeared at the party in the tackiest garb and who acted the "looniest."

After the games which lasted from 8 until 10 o'clock, punch and cookies were served.

Campfield Places Highest on Suit

Modeling a sky blue and gray tweed suit trimmed with gray buttons and baby blue satin lining, Mary Alice Campfield won the top honor of first place with her tailored garment in second-year homemaking of Canyon High School. She was followed by Molly Nan Zieglar, second, and Fannie Mae Prichard, third.

Molly Nan wore a circular skirt and fitted red jacket set off by red and white covered buttons while Fannie Mae modeled her red jacket and white plaited skirt.

As a practice teacher from West Texas State College, Miss Margaret Lill sponsored the making of the dresses, and judges for the morning were Miss Mattie Lee Seago and Miss Esther Oren. Guests were Mrs. Tom Ziegler and Mrs. Harry Campfield.

Approximately three-fourths of the students decided to make spring suits instead of tailored general wear dresses. Members of the class who showed their dresses were Mary Alice Campfield, Juanita Anderson, Oleta Kellum, Molly Nan Katheryn Davenport, Veta Roberts and Lorena Turner.

Nurses Construct Class Equipment

To show that useful things can be made out of cheap or available materials, girls enrolled in the home nursing classes have been experimenting with equipment necessary to make a person comfortable when ill.

Chicken wire and galvanized tin were wrapped with white strips of cloth to produce useful 30 cent bed cradles that release the pressure from a suffering portion of the body. Mildred Gill and Dorothy Anderson made these as Avis Campfield and Wilma Jean Dickerson originated a bed pan for 25 cents.

A firm white frame and canvass make up Margaret Prichard and Lottie Jo Johnson's back rest that they made for approximately 18 cents. The priceless medicine cabinet built by Florence Hall, Mattie Garrison and Genevieve Sullivan serves as a place to store medicines, while Veda Mae Parrish and Loyce Gipson's serving tray has a four-fold purpose. This piece of equipment may be used for eating, reading, writing or for a bed cradle. An inexpensive hot water bottle cover was made by Martha Lee Foster.

As Martha Lee demonstrated the use of the articles, the students graded them according to their service ability, durability, cleanliness and comfortableness.

Canyon FFA Chapter Enters Annual Dairy Cattle Contest

Hoping to receive the plaque and the prize money awarded the winner of the high school division, the Future Farmers of America from Canyon High are entering the dairy contest on judging dairy stock.

As practice for the actual event, the farmers have been judging pictures of milk cows.

Results of this contest will be announced in May.

Truitt's Sixth Grade Finishes Ratification Parade Drawing

Made by the sixth grade under the direction of H. W. Truitt, instructor, the 15 feet long beautification parade mural was completed this week.

Explaining by the use of pictures the ratification of the Constitution, the mural carries with it the early history in the development of the United States.

Each section in the painting, which portrays the principles of democracy, represents some early development, such as colonies or organizations.

"The work done on the mural is very commendable, and the boys and girls deserve a great amount of credit," affirmed Mr. Truitt.

Committee Plans to Beautify School Grounds in Summer

To survey the school grounds and to make plans for beautifying them, H. L. Heizer, chairman of the grounds committee, and Paul Lindsey met with Superintendent J. B. Speer, Wednesday afternoon, March 25, for a short discussion.

"Our first project," decided the committee, "will be to carpet the complete grade school playgrounds with bermuda grass before next September."

With the help of the Future Farmers of America, the group will replace two chinese elm trees which have died and will prune all the older trees.

"If our money will stretch farther, we shall purchase some evergreen shrubbery to place in front of the two school buildings," replied Mr. Speer.

Company Shows Comedy Ability

Sam Reveals Principal's Past Life in Oklahoma

"And now, for those who never have seen our show," stuttered Sam, "we'll give you the same old act again."

With talent like the Static Trio, Hal Dobkins and the Ellis Sisters, Sam's show was entirely different from the all comedy show he had the last time he visited Canyon High.

If Sam is an authority on Oklahoma, Principal J. F. Dickson was run out of the state because he thought too many hogs were his. It seems that Sam and Mr. Dickson were in the fourth grade four years and got kicked out because they hadn't shaved.

Static Trio Is Featured

The Static Trio, with Gene Farley, Marlyn Cornelius and Vesta Odell, came back on with three numbers and "The Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy of Company B."

Vesta Odell, pianist of the group, played "The Eyes of Texas" as a school march, oifferatory, wedding march, funeral dirge, and as it would be played at a classical recital.

As an audience participating act, Gene and Marlyn sang "Deep in the Heart of Texas" with the audience clapping in the required spaces.

The trio came on again "The South American Way" and "The Band Played On," with Gene and Marlyn dancing the step commonly known as "Put Your Little Foot."

Sam Gives Imitation

Sam imitated a soldier blowing "Taps" and gave an imitation of a steel guitar. How so many sounds could come from a human mouth is a problem for Einstein.

Gene, Vesta and Marlyn sang "Remember Pearl Harbor," "We Did It Before and We Can Do It Again," "Elmer's Tune" and "Deep in the Heart of Texas."

The Ellis Sisters went into a patriotic tap dance to the tunes of "Stars and Stripes Forever" and "Yankee Doodle" with a great deal of fancy hoofing.

"And that, folks, will be all for tonight," ended Sutttering Sam.

Spring Season Finds Refreshing Faculty

Now comes spring again, and almost all the younger poets are carrying rifles and many a first robin is too scared to chirp. But love laughs at gun-smiths. On the Canyon High School campus, the faculty and young people greet the season with a frankness as refreshing as spring itself.

When the weather turns warmer, the trees begin to bud and one's mind is always outside instead of inside the school room, then one knows it is spring.

Later in the season, one gets the "planting fever." Furiously, a garden is started and flower seeds are planted. But alas! After it turns warmer, the poor flowers are usually left to shift for themselves.

It is in the spring that the new animals appear—birds, rabbits and the pesky flies. And in the spring, a man's heart is turned to nothing but love. There is a name for all the pent-up feelings of spring; it is "spring fever."

Biology Students Study Roots By Use of Domestic Seeds

The current project in the biology class is the study of roots and tropism, their growth and reactions to certain conditions. The class is using radish seeds for its first experiment to prove that gravity affects the roots.

The seeds on a wet blotter pressed between a piece of tin and a piece of glass will grow downward.

Next, the class will place a budding plant at the window to see if the flowers will open toward the light.

Ten Agricultural Boys Order Uniforms of Blue and Gold

In addition to having new Future Farmer of America club pins, 10 future farmers placed orders for new jackets, shirts or coveralls, Monday morning.

Printed on the front of the ordered articles in gold letters will be the owner's name, while the F. F. A. emblem will be sported on the back of each.

Mrs. Banks: "Well, I admit that I was outspoken at the Civilian Defense meeting today."

Mr. Banks: "I don't believe it. Who outspoke you?"

Juniors Will Sponsor Rustic Comedy Starring Movie Actor Favorites

Do you Feel Older? Huff Feels Ancient

Getting up in the morning by the new time and starting a day's work at school at 9 o'clock rather than 10 o'clock, really makes one feel older—but, to have a birthday too, one begins to feel ancient.

This was witnessed by Olin Huff, commercial instructor, as on March 30, school started at 9 o'clock, while on March 28, he celebrated a birthday.

In honor of his birthday, serving cookies, ice cream and candy, the students in Mr. Huff's shorthand class gave him a surprise party.

"I appreciate the party and the spirit in which it was presented," said Mr. Huff.

Band Will Present Musical Concert

Canyon High students will be entertained in assembly tomorrow from 11:30 until 12 o'clock by the band which will feature a brass sextet, a clarinet quartet and a cornet trio.

To be presented by the featured groups are Stephen Collin Foster's "Stephen Foster's Favorites," the sextet; Handel's "Fughetta of the Little Bells," clarinet trio; and Herbert L. Clark's "Flirtations," cornet trio.

The band will open the program with the "Star Spangled Banner," followed by "Two Admirals," "Phantom Trumpeters," "Washington Post March" and "Barnum and Bailey's Favorite."

The clarinet quartet consists of Anita Davis, J. Spencer Winn, Jane Campbell and Andy Walsh; the cornet trio, Dan Cabe, Dick Woods, Ross Bruner accompanied by Anita Davis; the sextet, Merle Dickerson and Lila Mae Lill play cornet, Frank Sharman, trombone, Clarence Thompson, baritone, Ray Nickelson, horn, and Talmadge Bosley, bass.

Cooper Illustrates New Hair Styles

Using a chart which pictured the newest "hair-do's," Mrs. Leo Cooper of Marie's Beauty Shop explained and illustrated care of the hair and nails and discused hair styles for girls of the first period physical education class at Canyon High School Thursday from 10 until 11 o'clock.

Topics of discussion were how to fix types of hair-do's for particular faces, how to brush the hair, how to roll hair in curls, how to shampoo hair, the growth of the hair, care of the nails, manicuring the nails and length of the nails.

Girls from the class were chosen to have their hair fixed in several different styles to show the effect each style would have.

"The thing that pleased me was the interest shown by each girl towards the unit on the hair and nails, and the fine manner in which Miss Natalie Flesher presented the material to arouse this interest. It seemed that each member of the class was interested not only in her case but in others' problems," commented Miss Helen Whiteside, instructor.

Junior Class Receives Senior Ring Premiums for 1943

Canyon Eagle premiums given '41 juniors who placed a down payment on their next year's senior rings were received Monday, March 23, by Mrs. Guy B. Tabor, class sponsor.

Eleven pupils ordered gold belt buckles with an eagle head, open book and a large purple and white "C" and "High School" inscribed on them, while 20 members chose petarl bracelets with a purple and white "C" placed upon an open fan and small "HS" initials.

Nine students selected lavalieres of the same description with a small gold chain, whereas one individual requested a red, white and blue victory pin.

These premiums are favors of the Herff-Jones Company, Indianapolis, Indiana, from which Loni Smith is a salesman. They will forward the rings to the class at the first of the school year.

Representing Canyon High in the organized sororities and fraternities at West Texas State College, Bradford Black is a pledge of Epsilon Beta fraternity; Kettee Johnson is a member of Pi Omega; and Doris Ball is a member of Kappa Tau Phi sorority.

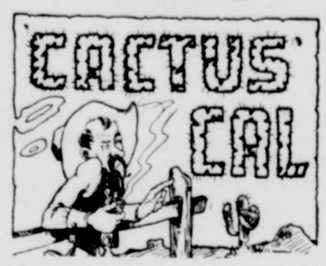
Fast-moving, full of thrills, pathos and laughter is the rustic comedy, "Hoosier Schoolboy," a moving picture to be sponsored by the Junior Class, Tuesday afternoon, in the high school auditorium at 2 o'clock.

Mickey Rooney enacts the title role, Shockey, while Edward Pawley makes believable the role of the shell - shocked veteran. Frank Shields portrays the wealthy son and Anne Nagel characterizes the role of the school teacher.

Critics have said, "The 'Hoosier Schoolboy' is a truly brilliant merging of acting, direction and story that results in a sincere and satisfying production. It cannot help but please everyone from the age of six to 60, and we heartily recommend it.

"Old Mother Hubbard" is the comedy short to be shown.

Grade school children will be given an opportunity to see the show Tuesday morning; the high school students, Tuesday afternoon. Admission will be 10 cents to all.



Evidently tennis is rapidly becoming a favorite sport because many twosomes are developing, such as, Helen Woods and Alvin Fenn; Patsy Woods and Jack Farley; and Norma Jo Currie and Bert Brown.

Romance in Saxophones

How unbelievable! But guess who? Yep, the first two chairs in the saxophone section — Johnny Harter and Georgia Faye Holt. Johnny was attracted to the Stuttering Sam show; so he got a date. Suppose the only reason was that he didn't have to go very far to ask her.

A most modern artist has displayed his ability to sketch by producing a portrait of Mrs. Carl T. York. The most outstanding feature is her toe extending from her shoe. The only excuse Mrs. York can rake up is that "a high arch and a narrow heel, etc." all have to be included in her shoes, so she doesn't have room to worry about whether they are toeless or toe . . . well chosen, then!

Spring fever and the desire to go out in the sunshine struck Leroy Wooten and Beulah Hammond, because they rode around somewhere all Sunday afternoon.

The Sophomore Play is gettin' along swell . . . so are the new (and old) soph couples . . . Charles SoRelle and Billie Hale, and Lindsey Taylor and Juanita Anderson.

From the seventh grade to this year's seniors, girls are wearing premiums that the juniors got with the purchase of their rings. Wonder why? Where'd they get 'em? Hum-m-m-m.

The March winds ended with two breezy couples attending the last Saturday night show in March. Robert Avent and Dick Woods swiped Martha Jean Dowd and Polly Winstead and sho' took 'em for a nice evening full of . . . fun!

What a disappointment! All the girls from C. H. S. who journeyed to Panhandle Saturday had high hopes of gobs of good-lookin' boys, but there turned out to be just four. Two of them were from Canyon—Eugene Bonds and Charles SoRelle. Shirley Harrell ought to be able to account for their well-being (?)

Charles Wright's a fast worker, because he monopolized Evelyn Black's attention Saturday night at the show. (But I think she really enjoyed it! Nothin' like startin' early, eh, Charles?

Spring is here! Spring is here!
This is the lovers' time of the year.
Morning—noon—evening—night,
Oh, my—what a sight!

Burdette Brown had the family car Friday night. As he was riding home, he saw two beautiful girls, (Earleen Greenfield and Annabelle Laughery). Their beauty so blinded him that he ran into a trailer, broke one of the headlights on his car and put a dent in the fender.

Now Burdette has a chaperone when he takes the car.

Officials Realize Paper Equality

Canyon Is Only Panhandle Class B School Saluted

As a just compensation for the staff members' work, the Interscholastic League Press Conference bestowed its Award of Honor to The Eagle's Tale.

Although the Canyon High press club did not receive the Award of Distinguished Merit, which is the highest honor I. L. P. C. offers, it was the only Panhandle journalism group of Class B schools to receive recognition.

Reddick Explains Awards

In explaining the Award of Honor, which was introduced only this year, DeWitt Reddick, sponsor of the state-wide organization, wrote, "Each year the task of selecting the best papers from each district seems to become harder than the year before, and this year League officials felt that many papers within a district were so nearly equal in excellence that only a few points were the basis of determining the winners.

"For those papers which ran a close race with the winners, a special Award of Honor is being made. We are happy to inform you that the excellence of your paper was so nearly that of the winner's in your district that the judges have recommended this Award of Honor for your paper. A certificate suitable for framing and hanging in your newspaper office will be sent you within a few days. The award does not carry with it the privilege of entering delegates in the state contests at the I. L. P. C. convention on May 8 and 9 in Austin, but we are welcoming you to participate in other phases of the convention which is planned as much for non-contest delegates as for contest delegates.

Twenty Papers Receive Award

"To the best 20 school papers in the state, exclusive of those receiving the Award of Distinguished Merit, comes the recognition of receiving the Award of Honor, symbolic of excellence and leadership among the high school papers of Texas. Awards of Distinguished Merit are made entirely on the basic of district groups; on the other hand, Awards of Honor are conferred on the basis of the state as a whole. Because of this difference in basis of award, it is to be recognized as possible that some of the papers receiving an Award of Honor might, in a state-wide competition, rank above some of the papers receiving an Award of Distinguished Merit."

"The Gusher" from Granfells and "The Yellow Jacket" from Kermit qualified for the Award of Distinguished Merit from the Northwest District.

Members of the journalism class are discussing sending delegates to Austin for the war-time discussion and convention.

I Didn't Know That School Starts at 9

"Well, how did I know that school was supposed to start at 9 instead of 10 o'clock. No one told me," said several tardy students as they tripped into Canyon High Monday morning to find themselves to be in time for the second period class.

Running on the same schedule as the business houses of Canyon, school started at the old time, 9 o'clock. Sleepy-eyed students stumbled into their first period classes, after having caused their mothers to be practically voiceless from having called them so much.

But the moral, as there is to all stories, is that the sleepy-eyed students after they finally awakened, greeted nature for several hours of beautiful weather.

"All the school bus drivers are asked to arrive at school at about 8:50 o'clock in order to give bus students a longer time to sleep," said Superintendent J. B. Speer.

Canyon FFA Chapter Initiates Greenhands from Dimmitt

To be initiated formally from the Greenhand Degree into the Future Farmer Degree was the purpose of the Future Farmers of America boys of Dimmitt who visited in Canyon today.

Presiding at the formal initiation this afternoon at 4 o'clock is Wayne Smith, president. Other officers to assist in the initiation were Billy Brown, vice-president; Jo Carrol Dutton, secretary; Jim Spencer, treasurer; Charles SoRelle, parliamentarian; Wayne Sanford, watch dog; John Lill, historian; Loyd Devin, advisor and Jackie Brian, reporter.

D. Boone Had Nothing on Mote

M. C. Sanders Fires Wicked Arrow

By Lillian Chambers Brown

It's "no fun" to shoot rabbits with a gun says Mote Sanders. When he aims at a rabbit with a "22," he "Knows it's dead," but when he shoots with a bow and arrow, there is some doubt. Mote has killed thousands of rabbits with his bow and arrows.

Mote has never shot a rifle against anyone that can beat him. The tall, lanky Scotch-Irishman backs this statement by challenging disbelievers to contest.

His background reveals the reason for his successful marksmanship.

Martin C. Sanders was born April 12, 1875, in Edmondson County, Ky., where his grandparents had settled in the forks of Green and Nolin Rivers. "They went there," he explained, "so they could hunt and fish and wouldn't have to work."

His grandparents, Jackie and Polly Saunders (the "u" was omitted by later generations), marked out a tract of land of approximately 600 acres which was the family property until after 1900. The country was not settled; therefore, the family could have plenty of land at little cost. The Saunders came to America from Scotland and Ireland and settled in Virginia before going to Kentucky.

Chuckling, he added that he remembers Jackie Saunders' red hairy legs below Scotch kilts better than anything else about the pioneer.

His father, Benjamin Sanders (who never shaved during his lifetime), had 10 brothers and a sister. All of these big mountain men lived out just with their guns.

"These Kentuckians were the best people in the world," remarked Mote. "And they actually thought if they raised corn they could make what they wanted to out of it, including liquor."

In this setting, the boy learned to shoot a gun before he was large enough to load it for himself. Benjamin Saunders taught the boy by having him shoot a squirrel's head from 40 yards. Telling about his squirrel hunting at the age of 12 or 13 years, Mote remarked, "It was no guess work; whenever I shot at one, it was too bad."

Mote Sanders learned most of what he knows at home and at work, having attended school very little. However, he did memorize the blue back speller at school and misspelled only two words in the entire book when the course was completed. To show that he had mastered the work, he spelled the two words—silhouette and wheoffment.

Mote gained a knowledge of nature while watching animals and tramping the woods in search of arrow heads, which he sold at Mammoth Cave.

"I was in the mountains with a gun and dogs and I can tell things that many writers of nature do not know."

As an example, he referred to a recent natural history which states that the drumming pheasant makes noise by beating its wings on a log. He explained that, by observation, he learned the pheasant makes its noise from its throat and by beating its wings together.

By living out-of-doors, he learned how to tell by tracks what various animals are going to do and how to trap them. He did not like to fish when he was a boy, but recently he has spent several vacations, fishing. He finds mountain climbing too strenuous.

On March 22, 1899, Mr. Sanders and Miss Ernest Lee, a relative of General Robert E. Lee, were married in Cameron, Ill. Mrs. Sanders' parents also lived in Kentucky.

Mr. Sanders first worked for the Santa Fe Railroad in 1894 when his job was to assist in the replacing of 60-pound rails with 75-pound steel, which he thought made a big road. "But now the 75 is not even used for back tracks; 110 and 130 pound rails are now in use; that is, 110 pounds to the yard, and the rails are laid in strips 39 feet long." In 1896 he experienced his first strike and did not get paid for three months.

In 1911 he moved to Bovina, where he was employed on the Old Ray Ranch, which was a part of the XIT. He became a section foreman in 1922 when he came to Canyon, and remained in that position until May, 1940, when he retired on a pension.

The retired foreman's strong and steady voice is unique in that it is a result of the Scotch-Irish language of his parents, the speech of the Kentucky mountaineers, and the Mexican language, which he heard and spoke many years as a Santa Fe section foreman.

Telling of his early experiences as foreman, he said, "They'd send 8 and 10 Mexicans from Old Mexico who would come with a pair of overalls, sandals, a straw hat, and a shawl wrapped around them in the middle of winter. They couldn't speak a word of my language and I couldn't speak a word of theirs, so I just had to show them what I wanted done."

Gradually Mr. Sanders picked up a word or fwo of their language until within five years he could instruct them in their own tongue. Then he started conversing with them about their country and topics other than work. Finally he even started thinking in Spanish as he spent his working hours every day with the Mexicans. Before Mote retired from the railroad, he did not think of talking anything but Spanish while at work. Sometimes the Mexicans could not understand each other as they came from different parts of Mexico; therefore, Mote learned different pronunciations, some of them good Spanish and some mostly Indian.

The retired foreman stated that he can understand Spanish spoken on the radio, but he cannot understand Spaniards when they sing, as their music is too fast. On one occasion when a Mexican was being tried in a local court, a college professor was called to interpret for the defendant. Mr. Sanders was soon ordered to the court to act as interpreter, as the college Spanish teacher could not understand the Mexican, and the Mexican did not understand him.

While a member of Company K, 6th Infantry, of the National Guard in 1911, Mr. Sanders won all of the badges that were given at that time for marksmanship. In fact, he outshot his superior officers. He was awarded a sharpshooter badge, marksman badge, one 1st class, one 2nd class, and expert pistol badge.

Hunting is now one of Mr. Sanders' favorite pastimes, and he has killed thousands of rabbits. He and a son, Milton, who is teacher of manual training in Canyon High School, started shooting with bows and arrows several years ago. Today they have highly developed the making of bows and arrows and shooting with them.

He cuts points for some of the arrows out of old hack saw blades and puts them down in the round Port Oxford cedar stick where he solders them. These points can be shot through a cow or through three of four inches of pine. Mr. Sanders prefers to shoot rabbits with the blunt arrows, which he can easily shoot through a board an inch thick.

When asked what was most important about shooting arrows, he stated, "It's knowing your distance. You learn just by practice, and you do it by feeling."

Two or three years ago Mr. Sanders, Milton, and another son, Cal, played archery golf with Ken Wilhelm, the champion shot of the world. They could tie him on shots from long distances, but he usually won on those of 15 steps or less.

Recently Mr. Sanders gave several arrows to the Red Cross to sell. He said he had plenty of time and little money and will make more arrows if there is sufficient demand. In this way, he is serving his country, and this practice has been set up as an example to others who have talents but little cash. This same loyalty he has reflected throughout his many years as Santa Fe foreman.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanders seem not to be able to get away from the railroad. Their house is now only half a block from the depot, where they may watch trains during the day and listen to their roar at night.

Despite his 66 years, Mr. Sanders is very active, and he loves to fish, but more pleasure comes when he returns home to tell of the big fish he didn't catch, punctuating his speech by raising his short eyebrows, which appear above a pair of expressive blue eyes. He usually dresses in blue overalls with a khaki shirt and wide-brimmed hat.

Earl Sanders of Hereford, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Sanders, has spent nearly 25 years with the Santa Fe. The other eight children are Mrs. Murrel Peppard, Mrs. Edith Murphy, Milton, and Calvin of Canyon; Mrs. Frances Potts and Mrs. Clara Spain of Watsonville, Calif.; Mrs. May Young of Santa Rosa, N. M., and Mrs. Hazel Tyler of Galesburg, Ill.

"Smells like something cooking"

IT'S NO FUN riding behind a car that is laying a smoke screen, enveloping you in clouds of evil-smelling fumes.

And it's no fun for the owner of the car which is doing the smoking. Every mile he drives is wasting his money and shortening the life of his motor. Any mechanic will tell him that he needs new rings or new pistons.

Chances are the trouble started long ago with imperfect motor lubrication. Good oil would definitely have lengthened the life of the motor.

That is more important than ever in these days of completely curtailed auto production. So keep the following facts always in mind, when deciding which oil to use:

If you want our best oil, you don't have to choose blindly from the many lubricants which Phillips makes, because we frankly point out that Phillips 66 Motor Oil is our finest quality . . . the highest grade and greatest value . . . among all the oils we offer.

Whether you are replacing winter-worn oil with fresh summer grade, or making the regular 1,000-mile change, be sure to ask for Phillips 66 Motor Oil.

Maintenance of Standards Asked

Education Conference Has Urged Federal Aid for War Plant Area Schools

Fear that the public and its leaders may become so concerned about the present international crisis that the training of youth for tomorrow's democracy may be neglected, the Northwest Texas Conference for Education through its House of Delegates has urged that schools of the Panhandle try diligently to maintain their high standards.

The delegates believe that the schools may make full contributions to the war effort without sacrificing these standards. Recommendations adopted by the conference in the recent Amarillo meeting, included:

1. That school facilities be made available for defense purposes.
2. That schools develop a resolute morale by sponsoring public forums and patriotic rallies and keeping fundamental issues clear.
3. That increased responsibilities placed upon colleges and secondary schools by wartime population shifts be properly financed through federal aid for both construction and operation.
4. That state, local and federal agencies give immediate attention to providing adequate compensation for able men and women in the teaching profession.
5. That the state department of education be consulted by school districts when lowering of standards seems necessary.
6. That the state department of education give attention to wartime requirements imposed upon secondary schools and that checking agencies make some allowance for this necessity.
7. That schools give special attention to the physical training of every child.
8. That school administrators stress Americanization programs including flag etiquette and the learning of the national anthem and the pledge of allegiance by every pupil.
9. That all schools stress the sale of defense stamps and bonds.

The conference pledged full support of the all-out effort of the nation in the present emergency.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Regular Vesper Services will be held Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Episcopal Church with the Rev. W. R. Scott, pastor in charge of the services. The public is invited to join in this worship service.

Wayside Items

A number of pupils are out of school with mumps.

Mrs. Bessie Lane was able to be taken from the hospital to the home of her sister, Miss Sallie McGehee in Canyon.

We have just heard of the death of Riley Jones, an aged farmer who has been in ill health for some time. We have not heard the funeral arrangements. He was well known here.

Roy Franklin and family of Canyon visited Friday night in the W. R. Franklin home.

John Stockett and wife, also W. R. Franklin were Amarillo callers Monday.

Travis Knox has written his parents from Australia.

The singing at the church Sunday night was very well attended.

Mrs. John Stockett and Mrs. Chas. Kennedy were Tulia callers Tuesday.

Do your shopping in Canyon.

Revival To Start at Baptist Church

The First Baptist Church will begin its Easter services Sunday, April 5, with Sunday School study of the meaning of the resurrection at 9:45, and at 11 o'clock the pastor, Dr. Roy L. Johnson, will preach on "Victory Here and Now." The choir, directed by Claude W. White, will sing special music.

At the evening hours the Training Union (and there were 136 people in this meeting last Sunday) will study "God in Every-day Experience," and the meetings begin at 7:15. At 8:25 the worship service will be a Song-Sermon on the Crucifixion and Resurrection of Christ. In this service the message of Easter will be emphasized by Scripture and music.

All seats are free and there is no charge for admission at the church, and America needs, above all things else, a vital contact with God.
